Otrobanda

Listing ID: 000871389044

The majestic Huize Batavia is located in the bustling and authentic neighborhood Otrobanda. This monument, built in 1747, is now close to the modern conveniences of the cruise terminal, cinema, Starbucks, Brionplein and Riffort with all its restaurants and shops. As soon as you walk into the courtyard you will see the stately appearance of the building. A solemn staircase takes you to the first floor. All living and sleeping quarters were renovated under the inspiring leadership of the current owners, they bought the monument in deplorable condition. Previously they have shown on Curacao as owners of Landhuis Bona Vista that they know very well what they are doing. Huize Batavia was also taken care of with love, wisdom and a lot of perseverance. The spacious living area has a gallery wrapped around and is divided into a library and a salon. The beautiful original wooden floor has been restored and the kitchen that was erected in one of the galleries has been completely removed. The living area is now being used as a petit restaurant where traditional high tea's are being served in the weekend. A restaurant per
