A resort-style property in Ojochal with the main home, cabins, and 12.6 buildable acres! This is a fantastic offering in South Pacific Costa Rica perched up in the hills with ocean breezes and ocean views. Just a five-minute drive to the main highway with the growing amenities that Ojochal has to offer. Anything that cannot be found in Ojochal can be found a short drive north in Uvita, the town which is the home of the Marino Ballena National Park and Whales Tail. The main home on the property is two stories, 1+ bedrooms with an ocean view. It is two stories and features lots of covered outdoor living space, kitchen, living room, dining room, and dry room. The bottom floor leads out to the patio and pool area which is an excellent area for gatherings with friends and family. Down the hill are three recently renovated cabins that are a part of the property. These rentals are perfect for someone looking to make additional income while living in their home or have a space to share with guests who come to visit. For someone interested in expanding, this is an excellent property for that as well! 5.5 hectares of usable
