Discover a one-of-a-kind residence, conceived by one of the most renowned architectural firms in the region. This contemporary design masterpiece combines cutting-edge aesthetics, high-end materials, and a harmonious integration with the natural surroundings. Located within the exclusive gated community of Manuel Antonio Estates, this property redefines the standard for luxury living on Costa Rica's Central Pacific coast. Manuel Antonio Estates is a secure, low-density gated community known for its privacy, lush jungle setting, and easy access to the best of Costa Rica's Central Pacific Coast. This masterfully designed 3-bedroom, 4.5-bath modern villa sits on a 1.5-acre estate lot, offering panoramic coastal and mountain views in a setting that feels both private and deeply connected to nature. Just minutes from Marina Pez Vela, Manuel Antonio National Park, and beautiful beaches, this property strikes the perfect balance between seclusion and convenience. Every element of the home reflects craftsmanship and thoughtful design — from the 20-foot-high ceilings to the seamless flow between
