In a beautiful new resort with an emphasis on environmentally friendly construction and thus featuring many energy-efficient details, we proudly present the following home: Type 3B: This house has a modern layout with an open kitchen and a spacious living room. This living is airy and light because there are several sliding doors and windows. The living can be well ventilated by opening shutter windows in the opposing facades. When you open the sliding doors, the indoor- and outdoor living space become one. The main bedroom has access to the terrace through sliding doors. There is a modern en-suite bathroom with bath, restroom and bassin. The bedroom has enough space for a large wardrobe. The second and third bedrooms are located on the other side of the house. The second bedroom also has an en-suite bathroom (with shower) and sliding doors to a private terrace. The third bedroom uses the bathroom (with shower) in the hall that also serves as a guest restroom. A very well thought-out layout that makes this house very pleasant to live in. Next to the kitchen there is a spacious utility room with space for a washer/dryer a
