Casa SolAngelo | The Crown Jewel of Tulemar $6,900,000 | 4 Bed | 6 Bath | 11,442 sq ft | Manuel Antonio, Costa Rica

Rising above the rainforest canopy within Costa Rica's most exclusive residential enclave, Casa SolAngelo is the architectural pinnacle of Tulemar — a private, gated reserve set in the heart of Manuel Antonio. Designed by acclaimed Costa Rican architect Andrés Brenes, this four-level estate is a striking blend of contemporary design and natural serenity. Anchored by a soaring limestone wall and living Frangipani tree, the home opens fully to sweeping ocean vistas, with a dramatic triple-edge infinity pool that appears to float 50 feet above the jungle. Every space is thoughtfully curated with noble materials, light, and flow — from the penthouse-inspired upper level with its 240° views, to the spa, elevator, and expansive terraces that offer quiet immersion in nature. The result is both a personal sanctuary and a masterpiece of modern tropical design. Tulemar: A Private World Apart To own within Tulemar is to hold a stake in the most coveted address in Manuel
